Autry Museum & Olivera Street

We start at "The Autry" formally known as the 'Gene Autry Museum,' founded by the singing cowboy Gene Autry. The museum is dedicated to sharing the stories and experiences of the diverse people of the West through exhibitions, lectures, film, theatre, music, family programs and festivals such as the Day of the Cowboy and Cowgirls, and the American Indian Arts Marketplace. The relationship between the American West and the movies are also highlighted. The new exhibit "Masters of the American West" will just be open! There will be a one hour docent tour and then some time on your own. Then we will visit Olvera Street for some authentic shopping and food for lunch or you may go to Felipe's around the corner. Fun day for all ages!!!

Class Number is 12939

When: Saturday February 8th, 10:00am – 5:00pm
Cost is $20

For more information please call the Joslyn Center at (310) 524-2705
