MITCH TAVERA, CHIEF OF POLICE

Press Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

September 18, 2012

DATE FOR SPACE SHUTTLE ENDEAVOUR LANDING AT LAX HAS BEEN CHANGED

Due to weather issues on the east coast, the landing of the Space Shuttle Endeavour at LAX has been changed to Friday, September 21, 2012. The Space Shuttle will land at LAX on the back of a modified 747 shuttle carrier aircraft between 11:30 AM and 12:30 PM.

The El Segundo Police Department will continue to designate the 300 to 600 blocks of E. Imperial Avenue as public viewing space to watch Endeavour land on the south runway at LAX. Click on the attached link to view a map of this location, which includes road closures and designated public parking.
