October 2013 Child Safety Classes For Parents

Protecting Your Child From Online Predators

Tuesday, October 8, 2013, 6:30 p.m., Joslyn Center, 339 Sheldon Street

Using Internet communication tools such as mobile phones, social networking, online gaming, chat rooms, email, and instant messaging can put children at potential risk of encountering online predators. This presentation is for ADULTS ONLY and teaches you:

- The signs that your child is communicating with a predator.
- The latest trends in social networking and applications that children use to talk to others.
- How to help police locate your child should he/she be abducted, or has agreed to meet with someone they met online.
- The latest monitoring software for cell phones and computers.
- Do your children have the right to restrict access to their rooms and electronics? Do you have a right to search their room?
- Internet safety tips.

How To Raise A Street Smart Kid

Tuesday, October 22, 2013, 6:30 p.m., Joslyn Center, 339 Sheldon Street

Did you know teens are at the highest risk of being abducted by a stranger? That 1 out of 5 girls and 1 out of 10 boys will be sexually assaulted by their 18th birthday? That 4 out of 5 of them were assaulted by someone they know? This presentation is for ADULTS ONLY and will include:

- Safety tips from infancy to the teen years.
- Explaining how to know the difference between good and bad strangers.
- What to do if they are approached by a possible abductor.
- Abduction escape techniques.
- Why abducted children stay with their abductor.
- Explaining good and bad touching.
