FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 11, 2013

El Segundo Police Detective Honored as Investigator of the Year

Chief Tavera (L) with Det. Muir at the "Investigator of the Year" awards presentation

On November 5, 2013, Detective Muir of the El Segundo Police Department was honored by the Coalition of Law Enforcement and Retail (CLEAR) as "Investigator of the Year" at their annual training conference in Atlanta, Georgia.

Detective Muir was invited to the national conference after being selected from a pool of 20 investigators from Law Enforcement agencies throughout the country. The selection panel narrowed the list to the top two finalists and chose Detective Muir for his Investigative Excellence.

Detective Muir was selected for his tremendous investigative work on a series of "T-Mobile Rooftop" burglaries throughout the Los Angeles region, including one in February 2013, at the T-Mobile retail store in the city of El Segundo. As a result of his investigation, in May 2013, El Segundo Police SWAT assisted by teams from Torrance, Manhattan Beach, Gardena and Inglewood served search warrants at several residences in the cities of Inglewood and Los Angeles. Five suspects were arrested on multiple felony charges and are currently awaiting trial.
