

FREE COMMUNITY PROGRAMS for ADULTS 18+

MAKER MONDAY: Snowflakes

Monday, December 3, 12-1pm

Drop in to make a one-of-a-kind beaded snowflake to decorate your winter season. Guaranteed not to melt.

YOGA IN LIBRARY PARK

Friday, December 7, 8:30-9:30am

Start your day with morning yoga under the trees in Library

Park. All levels of experience are welcome. Cosponsored by Recreation & Parks and Library Services.

CONCERTS IN THE LIBRARY

Saturday, December 15, 2-4pm

The Cherry Willow Jazz band loves to play the tunes that made the '20s roar and helped the '30s recover. Their repertoire includes traditional standards and early jazz tunes. Sponsored by the Friends of the El Segundo Public Library.

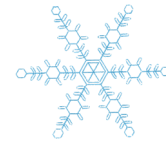

MEDITATION IN LIBRARY PARK

Wednesday, December 19, 12-1pm

Practice mindfulness meditation in a peaceful setting. All levels of experience are welcome.

Meet at the gazebo in Library Park. Cosponsored by Recreation & Parks and Library Services.

MAKER MONDAY: Winter Jars

Monday, December 17, 12-1pm

Create your very own Winter Wonderland Snow Globe in a jar. To personalize your project, please bring small items that will fit inside a jelly-jar sized container. Let it snow! Let it snow!

HOLIDAY CRAFTS & SONGS

Wednesday, December 19, 6-8pm

Join us as library staff help spread holiday cheer through crafts and songs to celebrate the season. All ages are welcome. Hot cocoa, cookies and candy canes will be served.
